St Chad's Newsletter

July 14th 2017

"At St. Chad's, we grow in the light of Christ, to share his love and reflect the gospel values."

Y6 were at the Safari Park yesterday and I'm pleased to report that none of them were grabbed out of the coach by hungry giraffes and they all came back safely! Mrs Parker said it's the best behaved group she's ever taken, and more pleasingly they all said 'thank you' as they got off the coach. I'm sure they all had a great time so thank you for supporting us. I'd also like to share some good news with you - the Y6 SATs results. Well done, we're all delighted!

	St Chad's	National
Reading	79%	71%
Writing	79%	75%
Maths	86%	75%
Spelling & grammar	82%	77%
Combined (R,Wr & Maths)	66%	61%

We are very nearly ready to perform!! There's lots of painting and costume making going on so I can't wait to see the production. You will have received a text explaining that there will be an entrance fee of £1. This is purely to cover the costs of the production. Unfortunately prams and buggies will not be allowed in the hall.

Today, your child will come home with their school report and, if they're in Rec, Y1, Y2 or Y6 some results from their end of year assessment. If you have any questions about anything on the report or their results, please do come in and talk to us. We will be happy to reassure you about anything you're unsure about.

KS1 led this morning's Mass and I was blown away at their confidence when reading and singing. Fr Gerry asked us to remember to do the right thing, even if it the more difficult option. I know it's not always easy!! Next week is our last school Mass of the year so do join us if you can.

We have joint winners this week, Y1 & Y5 both with 100%. Last week it was Reception and Y3

IMPORTANT REMINDER: Next Friday (21st July) is the final day of the school year and we will be breaking up at the earlier time of 1.15pm.

On the back of the newsletter you will see our winning design for our competition to come up with a poster to promote our new behaviour policy reflecting our new approach to behaviour management at St Chad's. The winning design was by Kapreia in Y6. She wins a voucher and her design is all around school. The new policy will be available to parents in the new school year.
